Dear Senators Kerry and Brown:

Date:

The Budget Control Act passed by Congress last August already cuts $900 billion from vital government programs over the next 10 years, at the expense of the poor and middle class. The Act creates a Supercommittee to recommend an additional $1.2 trillion to reduce the deficit, which can include new revenues and/or further cuts, for Congress to vote on by December 24, 2011.

I appreciate that Senator Kerry is one of 12 members of the Supercommittee, and that Senator Brown will have a key role to play in the final vote in the Senate.

We cannot endure any more cuts! As you implement the Budget Control Act, I urge you to fight for:

- 1) No cuts to Social Security, Medicare, and other vital domestic programs such as unemployment, housing, education and transportation;
- 2) Eliminate the deficit entirely by making the wealthy, banks and large corporations pay their fair share, including an end to the Bush tax cuts for households who make over $250,000 per year;
- 3) Create new jobs by investing in infrastructure, manufacturing, schools and housing;
- 4) Accelerate the withdrawal of troops in Iraq and Afghanistan and cut unneeded military spending
